

ODI 4 P 2

Session 10

How a good friend should be like?

Trustworthy: someone who you can trust.

Supportive: means he/she should help you in difficult times.

Respectful: he/she should show respect to you and don't say bad things to you

Loyal: loyalty means that he/she should defend you when you're in a bad situation even when you're absent

Good communicator : he/she should listen to you and share their thoughts and ideas with you.

Which one is more important, looks or personality?

How to describe someone's looks.

If you want to describe someone's looks, you can use:

He has got... / She has got...

For example:

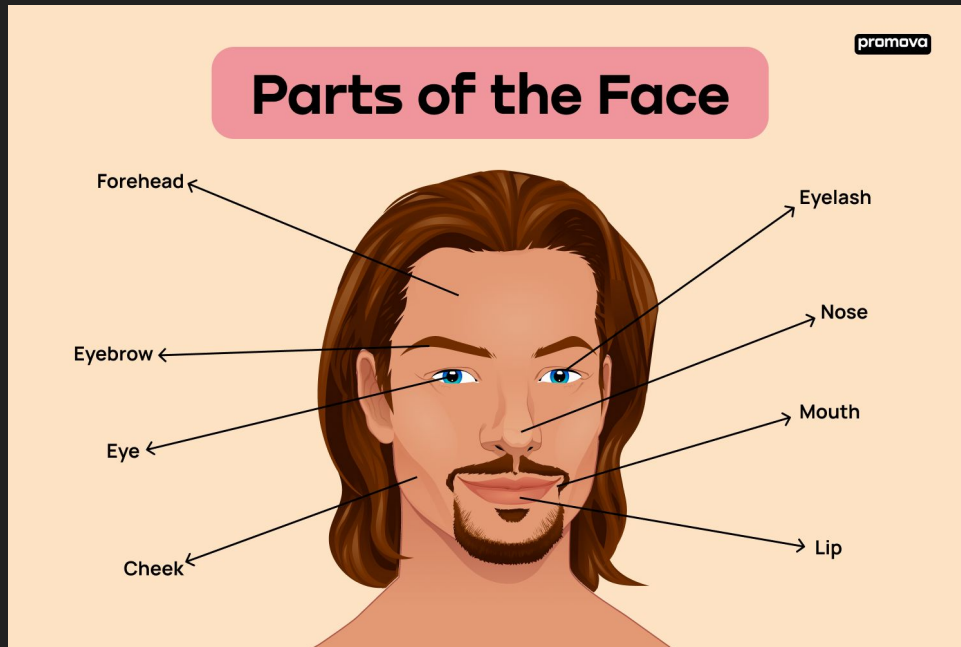

She has got blonde hair.

He has got black moustache.

The words that you can use for hair

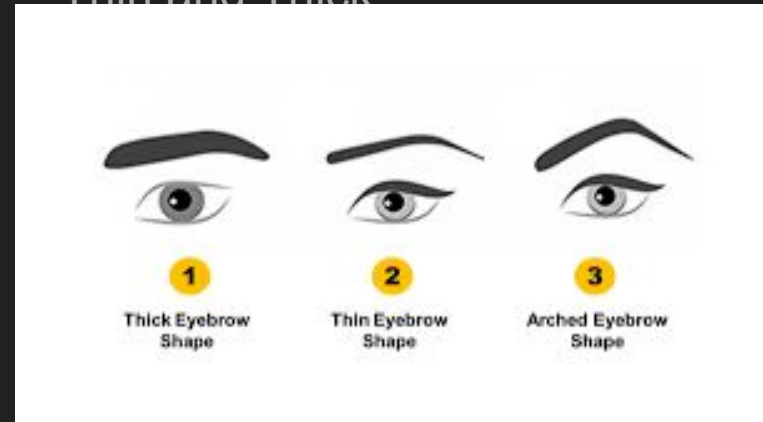

If you want to describe face, you can talk about different parts of the face, their color, how they look like and the size.

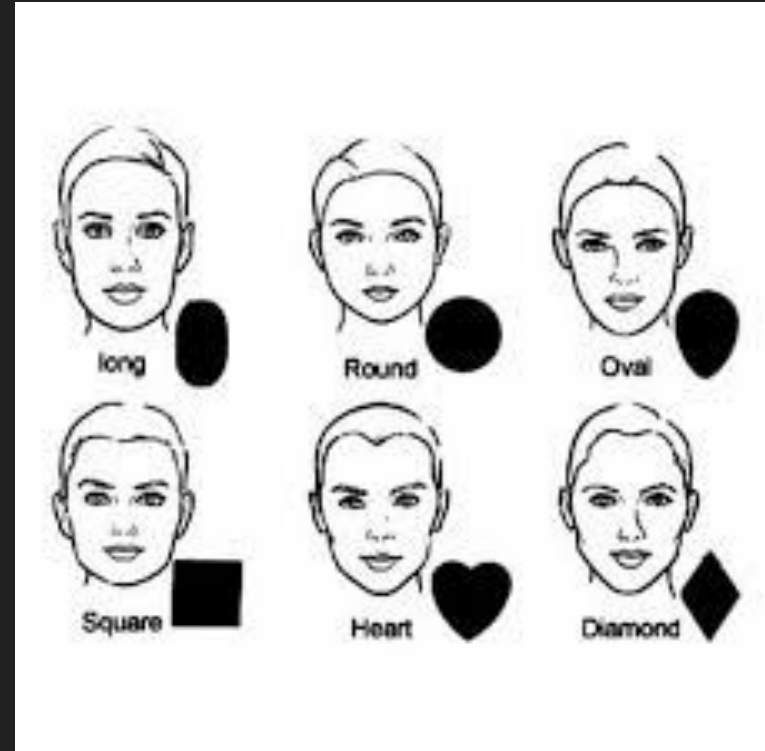

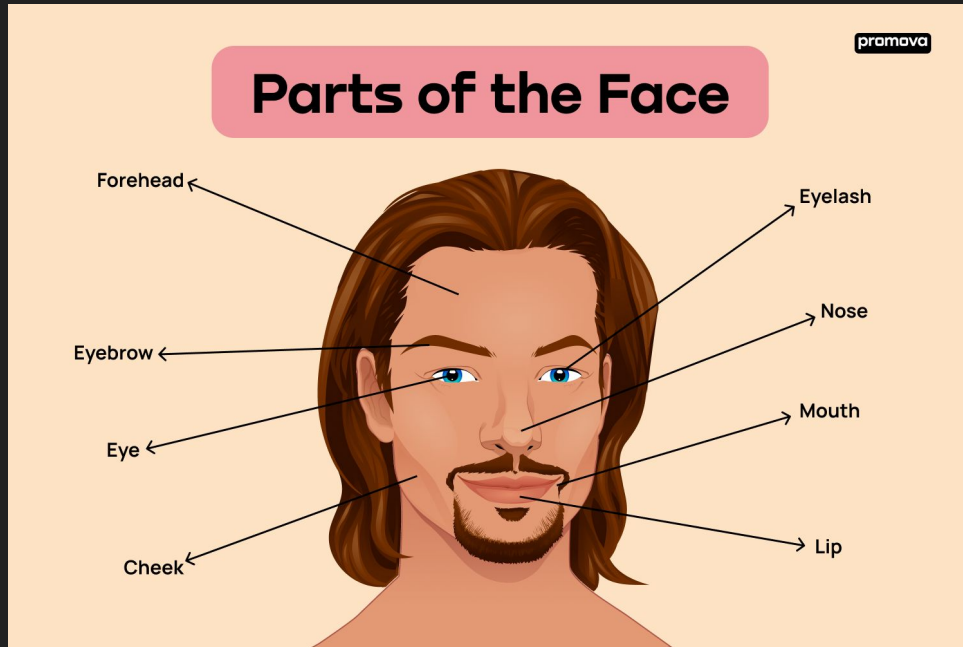

For eyebrows or lips you can use:

Thin and Thick

You can describe the shape of the head too!

Homework.

- Describe the face of one of your friends.
- Two pages of grammar book unit 4.
- Two pages of activity book unit 4.