ODI 2 P 4

Session 10

Using "to" and "for".

After to use a simple verb.

I use camera to take pictures.

We use laptop to surf the internet.

She uses a router to connect to the internet.

After for use a gerund (a noun with ing)

I use camera for taking pictures.

We use laptop for surfing the internet.

She uses a router for connecting to the internet.

Devices   For

Flash drive

We use flash drive for ……..

Headset

I use headset for ……..

Game controller

I use game controller for ……..

Printer

You should use printer for ……..

Router

You can use router for ……..

Digital camera

He uses digital camera for ………

Devices   To

Flash drive

We use flash drive to ……..

Headset

I use headset to ……..

Game controller

I use game controller to ……..

Printer

You should use printer to ……..

Router

You can use router to ……..

Digital camera

He uses digital camera to ………

Make sentences with could and couldn't run fast / when I was 10

lift the box / because it was too heavy read / before starting school finish the race / in record time

solve the puzzle / it was too difficult

1. I couldn't go to the party	a. after our chores were done.
2. She could dance well	b. because I was sick.
3. They couldn't finish the project	c. when she was young.
4. We could watch movies	d. before he started school.
5. He could read books	e. because it was too late.

Mia and jack

Mia and Jack's Lives

Mia and Jack had many experiences throughout their lives. When Mia was a child, she could paint beautiful pictures. She could also play the violin very well. However, she couldn't ride a bike until she was ten years old. As she grew older, Mia could speak three languages, but she couldn't learn to swim.

Jack had a different set of skills. When Jack was young, he could run very fast and he could climb trees easily. But he couldn't read until he was seven. As he got older, Jack could fix any machine, but he couldn't cook very well.

What could Mia do as a child?

When could Mia ride a bike?

What couldn't Mia learn to do as she grew older?

What could Jack do when he was young?

When could Jack read?

What was Jack unable to do well as he got older?

Technologies

Artificial Intelligence (AI): Technology of devices and machines that they use to learn and make decisions.

Virtual Reality (VR): a technology that makes an unreal environment that you can explore.

Web Browsers: softwares like Google Chrome, Mozilla Firefox, and Microsoft Edge that let you to search the internet.

Software: applications that run your devices.

Unreal: something imaginary/ something not real
Environment: everything around you is your environment
Run: make something work

Homework

Complete the texts of "to" and "for"

Memorize Jack and Mia text and answer the questions